

PMI

Tulsa Chapter

Building Professionalism in Project Management®

What's So MODERN About PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Chuck Tryon

In What's So MODERN About PROJECT MANAGEMENT, Chuck Tryon contrasts the assumptions of the Continuing Efforts and Single-Time Efforts. He also identifies some of the most critical issues Information Age organizations must address. This material is based on over two decades of research, consulting and training with some of the largest organizations in the United States. The concepts presented are also applicable to any organization engaged in aggressive product development activities.

This month only, we will meet in North Hall 117

Chuck Tryon is a nationally respected educator and popular symposium speaker. He founded Tryon and Associates in 1986 to provide seminar training and consulting that helps organizations and individuals develop predictable and repeatable approaches to modern project management, knowledge management and business requirements. The strategies presented in Mr. Tryon's seminars are used by thousands of professionals in hundreds of organizations across the United States, Europe and Canada. His client list includes many top 100 companies.

Can You Attend?

Yes!
Register On-Line

Member: $5
Non-member: $8
Guests welcome!

Friday April 4, 2008

11:30-Noon: Networking
Noon-1 p.m: Presentation

OSU-Tulsa Campus

North Hall, Room 117

Campus Map

You may pay cash or check at the door or pay on-line. Lunch is available at the Subway Sandwich Shop.